

RULE 606 ADVISORY OF HIGH AIR POLLUTION POTENTIAL
(Last revised or adopted prior to October 15, 1979)

Upon the determination that a high potential for deteriorating air quality exists in an area as a result of either an Air Resources Board analysis or the advice of a local district's staff, the Air Resources will inform all affected local districts of this condition. The operators of effected monitoring local district.